Dear Fellow Rotarians and Guests,

Welcome to the Rotary Club of San Jose's 27th Annual Fundraising Event.

Each year, this Event serves as the primary source of funding for the incredible contributions that our club makes through the good works of our committees and our community grants. In addition, one specific project is selected for funding from the Event proceeds. Our 2010 project is the creation of permanent exhibit spaces in the Diridon Train Station. The primary focus of the exhibits will be on the history of our valley. History San Jose will serve as curators of the exhibits.

A very special thank you to our sponsors and especially to our Title Sponsor, Comerica. This year marks their tenth year as a Title Sponsor. Thank you also to our Gold, Silver, Bronze and In-Kind sponsors who each made that special effort. Please take a moment to note all of those who are participating on our Sponsor page and take time to personally thank them.

And a big thank you to our Event Committee members. They are incredibly talented and committed and know how to have fun while working hard. It takes a lot of effort and attention to detail to put on an event like this and this team knows how to make it happen.

And many thanks to all of you for your donations of auction items and cash and for buying your tickets to tonight's event. So now the only things left to do is "bid high and often" on our terrific auction items and have a fabulous time with your "ticket to ride"

Warmest regards,

Shirley Lewis
Chair

176 BULOVA WATCH

This time piece is truly a wonderful piece.

BULOVA - A TIMEKEEPING TRADITION

Since 1875, when 23-year-old immigrant Joseph Bulova opened a small jewelry store in New York City, the name Bulova has symbolized a unique blend of old-world craftsmanship and new-world innovation.

Determined to explore every emerging possibility in the world of timekeeping, Bulova forged an enduring legacy of creativity and excellence, becoming an industry leader by combining fine design and constant experimentation with new products, untried technologies and imaginative marketing techniques.

In 1911, the company started manufacturing boudoir and desk clocks, along with fine pocket watches that sold in unprecedented numbers. Wristwatches had been viewed as luxury items, available only to the elite. As the greater convenience of this unusual product became apparent, Bulova began producing the finest quality wristwatches, selling them at a reasonable price to the largest number of people through qualified retailers. By the mid-1920s, Bulova had transformed the industry by introducing the first full lines of men's and ladies' wristwatches, in the process solidifying an international reputation for accuracy and innovation.

Combining the century's newest technologies with its established clockmaking expertise, Bulova also developed some of the earliest electric clocks and, in 1928, produced what is believed to be the world's first clock radio.

Symphony Silicon Valley tickets to "The Most Happy Fella," either on Friday, March 12, Saturday, March 13, or Sunday, March 14, 2010 (or another 2010 Symphony performance of your choice).

The Most Happy Fella is the third in Symphony Silicon Valley's •BROADWAY IN CONCERT• series, which presents the story, songs and music from the great musicals of Broadway's Golden Age. Orchestra and singers together on stage, without sets or costumes, bring you the music as you've never heard it before.

STARRING Broadway diva LISA VROMAN (Christine in The Phantom of the Opera in New York, L.A. and San Francisco, & Rosabella in The Most Happy Fella with New York City Opera) and as Tony, GUALTIERO NEGRINI, the youngest tenor to sing a leading role with a major American opera house, and 8-year Phantom veteran.

Tony, the Napa Valley's lonely but loveable grape farmer, "wants to get married" to his beautiful Rosabella, a waitress he met in a diner in San Francisco. Frank Loesser's (Guys & Dolls) old-tech version of on-line speed dating turns into one of the most memorable musical scores ever written.

Great songs range from the waitress's lament "Oh My Feet" to Joe's paeon to the wandering life, "Joey," from Tony's joyous "Most Happy Fella" to the uproarious "I Made a Fist." All the farm hands dream about "Standing on the Corner" looking for their own special dish. A bountiful harvest of great tunes and a wonderful love story.

Join Broadway in Concert for this ravishing musical. Three performances only, in their exciting concert format with featured singers and full orchestra on stage.
