ROTARY
CLUB OF SAN JOSE

Meeting: February 11, 2009 Number 4734

2008-2009 President, Bert George

Fred J. Ferrer "The Health Trust"

In many ways, Silicon Valley is a tale of two Valleys, those who have access to the fundamentals they need to support their health and wellness and those who do not.

Our speaker is a nationally known expert on early childhood development, an award winning community advocate, popular professor and a recognized Silicon Valley leader with 30 years experience in the nonprofit community.

Frederick J. Ferrer is the Chief Executive Officer of The Health Trust, a nonprofit organization founded in 1996 as a community benefit foundation. The Health Trust provides direct health services, programs, grant making and advocacy to support its vision: Silicon Valley as the healthiest region in the U.S.

Ferrer will speak next week and discuss his answer to the provocative question: Can Silicon Valley become the healthiest region in America?
