Rotary Club of San Jose Seeks Idol

There is a tremendous amount of hidden talent contained in the membership of the Rotary Club of San Jose. President Julie, in her search for increased club participation, is trying to discover some of that talent during her Rotary year.

Our new Money Mike portion of the meeting is the perfect platform to launch your bid to become the San Jose Rotary Idol. Do a solo, or join with fellow club members to perform together and split the $100 entry fee! Duets, trios and quartets are welcome. Sing a song, play an instrument, read a funny poem you have written, tell a joke. The possibilities for fame are endless. Can't do it in one minute? Talk to us. We can work something out.

So far the competition is wide open. Will you be this year's San Jose Rotary Idol?

The Money Mike Needs You!

A new feature during Rotary meetings this year is the Money Mike. Any member can purchase one minute for $100 to say or do just about anything. Any money spent purchasing time counts towards your Rotary Endowment Fellowship.

It's a great way to announce something of interest to the Club, or to say "Thank You" to someone. Tell us about something special that happened on your vacation, as Brian Adams did wonderfully at a previous meeting. Share a big event in your life, such as an anniversary, a significant birthday, the birth of a child or grandchild, a special award or promotion.

Our Club is filled with interesting, ingenious and generous members. No one in the Club has achieved what they have professionally by being timid. So step up to the Money Mike and share what you have to say with the rest of us. Priority will be given to those who e-mail Teresa at the Gordon House in advance of the meeting (teresam@sjrotary.org). Or you can sign up on meeting day on one of the special Money Mike sign up sheets located on the sign-in table and at the Special Guests table. Or just see John Kennett or Stew Park before the meeting.
