ROTARY
CLUB OF SAN JOSE

Meeting: August 27, 2008 Number 4714

2008-2009 President, Bert George

Rotary Personals ~ Mary Hiland and John Baird

Mary Hiland was born in the Bay Area and decided to stay. She has a daughter, from her first marriage, who is married with three children. She has been married to Bill Hiland for nine years, and Bill has two children.

Mary has over thirty years experience in the nonprofit sector, twenty of them as an executive. Currently, she runs her own business, Hiland & Associates, as an organizational development consultant primarily working with nonprofit executives and Boards of Directors. Mary has led two nonprofit mergers, served on several nonprofit Boards, presented at numerous conferences and workshops, and taught at San Jose State University. She has three Masters Degrees and a doctorate in organizational development with an emphasis on nonprofit governance and leadership.

John W. Baird, Ph.D. is a Principal Partner of ExecutiveEdge of Silicon Valley, LLC. John has over 20 years of coaching experience and is an Emeritus Senior Professor in the College of Business at San Jose State University.

John has worked with CEO's and Senior Executives in start-up, mid-size and large corporations over the past 20 years. This experience, as well as his independent research, has lead him to develop Survival in the Fast Lane: Leadership Tools for Navigating Entrepreneurial Transitions, a coaching program for CEO's that focuses on the skills they need at critical phases of the business life cycle. John specializes in one-on-one coaching, executive development, succession planning, strategy and team development and organizational change. John is an active speaker on leadership and coaching for business and professional associations.
